

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT, ELEVENTH
JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, IN AND FOR
MIAMI-DADE COUNTY, FLORIDA

THE STATE OF FLORIDA,
Plaintiff,

v.

PABLO LYLE, Defendant.

Case No. F19-6448
Division 15

K. Strachan-Richburg 2345

FILED FOR RECORD
2019 APR -5 PM 12:21
CLERK
CIRCUIT 3 COUNTY COURT
MIAMI-DADE COUNTY
FLORIDA

ORDER RESCINDING TRAVEL ORDER AND SETTING MATTER FOR HEARING

On April 2, 2019, a covering judge was handling calendar for the division. Counsel for Pablo Lyle entered court on a write-in matter requesting permission for the Defendant to travel. The Defendant is charged with felony battery, a third-degree felony. The judge entered the order. This Court has become aware by reading the Miami Herald today that the victim of this battery has died, and enhanced charges are likely to be filed. Based on this change of circumstances this Court is rescinding the travel order.

Further, this Court lacks the legal authority to sua sponte rescind or alter the Defendant's bond without notice. However, the bond contract at issue is vitiated by the victim's death and the likelihood of enhanced charges. Accordingly, the bondsman is required to attend the hearing, along with the Defendant and counsel to address the bond.

Accordingly, this matter is set for a hearing on (1) the court's travel order, and (2) the Defendant's bond to take place on Monday, April 8, 2019 at 9:00 am.

DONE AND ORDERED in chambers, Miami-Dade County, Florida, this 5 day of April, 2019.

LISA WALSH
CIRCUIT COURT JUDGE
